“A Forbes Best Bank 2017”*

FIRST COMMUNITY BANK RECOGNIZED AS A FORBES BEST BANK
IN AMERICA FOR 2017

*First Community Bank’s Parent Company, Heartland Financial USA, Inc., Recognized
Among America’s Leading Financial Institutions*

Keokuk, IA, May 10, 2017 — First Community Bank, a subsidiary of Heartland Financial USA, Inc. \(NASDAQ:HTLF\), has been named a “Forbes Best Bank 2017.”

In its annual review of the largest publicly traded banks and thrifts, Forbes ranked Heartland Financial USA, Inc. 44th among a nationwide group of 100 leading banking organizations with assets ranging from under $8 billion to over $2.5 trillion.

“We are proud to be named among the best banks in America for 2017,” said Barbara Smidt, Market President for First Community Bank. “As a community bank, what sets us apart is our strong commitment to our customers, combined with access to ‘big-bank’ products and services as part of Heartland. The Forbes ranking underscores the benefits of our unique structure—the strength and capabilities of a big bank, combined with the personal touch and local decision-making of a community bank.”

To compile the rankings, Forbes used data collected by S&P Global Market Intelligence through the third quarter of 2016 on the country’s largest publicly traded banks and thrifts. The data covered 10 metrics related to growth, profitability, capital adequacy and asset quality. Metrics included return on average tangible equity, return on average assets, net interest margin, efficiency ratio and net charge-offs as a percent of total loans. Nonperforming assets as a percent of assets, risk-based capital ratio and reserves as a percent of nonperforming assets were also factored in.

“We attribute our strong performance to both our loyal and satisfied customers and our disciplined financial management,” said Smidt.

In 2016, Heartland's net income increased by 35 percent over 2015, with earnings per share growing by 14 percent. That strong shared success provides First Community Bank with an outstanding platform for continued growth.
